

LCT ATTENDANCE & WELFARE TEAM NEWS: ATTENDANCE WEEK SPECIAL

Round up from the world of LCT Attendance & Welfare

ISSUE 1

APRIL 2024

Attendance Week across the schools!

Winners of the school competition at Allscott Meads Primary School proudly showing us their prize books.

Students at Kickstart Academy showing us all their information about Attendance Week.

HLC Primary created a fantastic poster to advertise Attendance Week.

Nikki and Dan present the trophy to Gill Cowlan, Jo Edwards and Attendance Hero Bear at Millbrook Primary School, winners of the Primary competition. Millbrook have EWO cover from LCT and Dan is very proud of their efforts.

Very proud and happy staff at Kickstart, winners of the Specialist School section. Dawn, their EWO, is really proud of their achievement.

The TOP 3 in each category, well done everyone for your achievements!

1	MILLBROOK
2	LANTERN
3	HLC PRIMARY

We all know that winning is nice, but the most important part of Attendance Week was that we raised the profile and the importance of good school attendance across our schools.

1	ERCALL WOOD
2	CHARLTON
3	HLC SECONDARY

1	KICKSTART
2	SEVERNDALE
3	QUEENSWAY

Special mentions to Lantern, Charlton and Severndale who all put in a huge amount of effort and were just pipped at the post on points - you were all fantastic!

Happy students from HLC Secondary are just some of the winners in school who will be taking home their Echo Pop prizes.

Emma Little, Assistant Principal for Attendance & Safeguarding proudly shows off Ercall Wood's trophy for winning the Secondary section.

Crudgington Primary School's Attendance Heroes showing us their well-deserved prizes.

ACROSS OUR SCHOOLS, WE HAD A COMBINED INCREASE OF 43.06% ON OUR ATTENDANCE DURING ATTENDANCE WEEK, OVER THE PREVIOUS WEEK! WOW!

A Parent Champion Coffee Morning discussing attendance, and some fantastic Lego-building on display during Attendance Week at Queensway South.

Nikki is really looking forward to judging the Poster Competition at Meadows Primary School and finding out which class has the most improved attendance when she visits this week.

It was lovely to see Yvee Turner, Ercall Wood student, receiving her prize for the Art Competition at LCT HQ last week. Everyone thinks this design, based on Inclusion, is a fantastic piece of work.

Huge thanks to the children and families who took the time to explain how they have been supported by the Attendance & Welfare Team. Here are a few below:
